Preface

We present you the 2nd issue of 2015 of the Journal of Pediatric Infection (Çocuk Enfeksiyon Dergisi), the official journal of the Society of Pediatric Infectious Diseases.

Journal of Pediatric Infection (Çocuk Enfeksiyon Dergisi) is still indexed in EMBASE, SCOPUS, CINAHL, Gale/Cengage Learning, Global Health, CAB Abstracts, EBSCO, Index Copernicus, DOAJ, ProQuest, and TÜBİTAK/ ULAKBİM Turkish Medical Database and Turkish Citation Index. Due to the shortage of original articles for the next issue of the Journal of Pediatric Infection (Çocuk Enfeksiyon Dergisi), we kindly ask you to submit your already written articles or to complete your studies as soon as possible to submit to our online submission system (www.ced-online.net). After a rapid revision process, the submitted articles would be accepted to publication if they are found to be suitable by our independent reviewers.

Our journal uses the online submission system (www.ced-online.net). The name of our journal is now indicated as Journal of Pediatric Infection (J Pediatr Inf) in order to prevent confusion in international indexes and citations. You can reach all issues of our journal including the old ones from the website (www.cocukenfeksiyon.org) free of charge. It suffices to visit the website (www.cocukenfeksiyon.org) to be informed about our journal and to contact us.
